

CHILDREN'S CORNER

Abraham Manygoats

Abraham Manygoats was a Navajo Indian. He was the medicine man in his tribe. His life was full of sin, dances, dark ceremonies, drinking and fighting. At the age of fifty-four he found the Saviour. From then on he was able to say, "I once was a medicine man and very deep in sin, but now I am a child of God, saved, and kept by His power."

Like everyone else who has ever put his trust in Jesus, Manygoats felt a great struggle in his heart at times. Whenever he wanted to do what was right, he found that there was a strong desire to do wrong. Then, after having read Colossians 3:9-10, he discovered that he had within him two natures, an "old man" that loved to sin, and a "new man" that hated sin.

Manygoats was asked to tell of his experiences with regard to these two natures. He simply answered that before he became a Christian a black dog lived within his heart. Then having heard about and trusted in the Lord Jesus, a white dog came into his heart. Thereafter the two dogs often fought with each other. The only way to overcome the problem was to feed the white dog and starve the black dog.

Boys and girls, I hope you realise that you too need Manygoats' Saviour if you are ever to be forgiven from your sins. However, if you are a Christian, then always try to starve anything that will cause you to sin and keep you back from God's blessing in your life.
